WINE TOURISM AND GASTRONOMY
IN A 5-STAR SPA HOTEL

A rzuaga Spa Hotel, located in the province of Valladolid together with Bodegas Arzuaga at the heart of the Ribera del Duero, is one of the leading centres for wine tourism in Europe. A concept which combines a working winery, a 5-star spa hotel and an area for relaxing your body and mind with gourmet restaurants settled in a magical atmosphere surrounded by vineyards. This is the perfect place for those who want to enjoy nature, vineyards and its scenic landscapes, taking benefit from wine therapy and thermal treatments, discover wine in one of the tasting workshops or to delight massages in the pine garden. As well as to delve into traditional gastronomy in a typically “Castilian” environment or explore the signature cuisine based on the top quality products of the own land. From spring to autumn you can enjoy bicycle or carriage rides around the Ribera del Duero routes and taste a personalised picnics, or relax in the outdoor restaurant surrounded by vineyards and have a glass of wine looking at the stars. You can also learn about Bodegas Arzuaga's origins by taking a guided tour to the winery and cellar and the state “La Planta” – cradle of their wine – where you can fill yourself with energy embracing our 2000 years-old Holm oak and visit the nature reserve of deer, mouflons and wild boars. The hotel provides different tailor-made venues for working meetings, banquets or celebrations, with the possibility of using the winery and its courtyard to create unique events. The hotel has 96 rooms, 10 of which are suites and one is a great 200 metres suite. All rooms include the complimentary services of a welcome bottle of Arzuaga Crianza wine, free mini-bar (1st night) and a technical guided tour of Bodegas Arzuaga (30-45 min). The highlight is the Grand Suite Arzuaga, offering all the luxury services. In a large area of 200 m2 with independent and direct access from the elevator, it's terrace overlooks the “Golden Mile” of Ribera del Duero.
