STAY IN A COLONIAL STYLE BOUTIQUE HOTEL
IN IBIZA'S HISTORIC TOWN

Mirador de Dalt Vila Hotel, originally a colonial style family house dating back to 1904, is a serene 5 star hotel situated in a privileged position within the ancient walls of Ibiza's World Heritage site of Dalt Vila, offering magnificent views of the old town, the harbour, the Mediterranean and beyond. This exclusive marble-clad boutique hotel preserves the traditional grandeur of a colonial family home, combining baroque beauty with a trove of intriguing antiques and opulent decor: dark wood, onyx and gilt finishes, whilst large open windows and airy white curtains ensure rooms feel bright. A glass lift and well-integrated, state-of-the-art electronics complete the hotel's classic-meets-21st century approach, with only 1 Grand Suite, 1 Suite, 4 Junior Suites and 7 Senior Rooms designed to meet the wishes of each client and ensure absolute privacy. All are equipped with the latest technologies and comforts: plasma cable TV, Internet, Jacuzzi, iPod connection with music, bathrobe, Bulgari products and pillow menu. The Grand Suite is something to behold containing a selection of family period arts, private Jacuzzi, personal gym and stunning en-suite with deep, stand along bathtub and views across the marina from its private terrace. The sloped wooden beamed ceilings of the junior suites add a romantic touch and the remote controlled sliding sky window offers a view of the 14th century Cathedral of Santa Maria d'Eivissa. Mirador de Dalt Vila also offer guests an eclectically stocked contemporary cocktail bar, an intimate outdoor pool and a DVD library. Gastronomy is one of the hotel's specialties. Es Mirador Restaurant specialises in avant-garde Mediterranean cuisine. Whether you are dining al fresco on the terrace overlooking the quaint Plaza de España or enjoying the intimacy of the restaurant itself, its menu offers a series of dishes designed to tantalise even the most demanding palette. La Enoteca wine cellar boasts a selection of fine Spanish wines. The hotel offers VIP services including private airport transfer, private yacht trips to Formentera and other island's beauty spots, luggage services and valet parking.
